What User likes about Kaizen Davao: Japanese Street Dining: the restaurant felt like a piece japan was transported in davao. the ambiente and the facility were great. they even contained a playlist of Japanese music to add that. the personal was very courteous and nice. I had only the chance to order a thing that her du30 rolls (after the current president named) and to my surprise it was really delicious. If I had another chance to visit, I would definitely like to try their... read more. What User doesn't like about Kaizen Davao: Japanese Street Dining: overhyped and overpriced. kalifornia maki: the mango was cut so thin, it is almost not there and the masago (orange fish roe) was so thin distributed I thought it was not a california maki (see pictures) more expensive than sm Grocery version that has more of the essential ingredients. Original-Ramen: general santos city has a cheaper version, almost a third of the cost still tastes the same. this has the following:... read more.
