What User likes about Pablo:

We found Pablo last weekend in New Farm and had Sunday brunch. Good food served in an interesting way complemented by good coffee and friendly service. The place is small - just two rooms basically - and it can be crowded but that adds to its charm. A good place to go if you want something a little different. read more. As a customer, you can use the WLAN of the place free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Pablo:

Visited Pablo with friends last weekend as we were looking for brunch in the area. Whilst we were greeted and seated fairly promptly and my food was pretty good, we waited an unacceptable amount of time for our meals, with several tables seated after us finishing their meals before we'd be given ours. Our drink order was also lost and no apology/explanation given. I wouldn't return, despite the food being reasonable as... read more. The large variety of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Pablo, Especially delicious juices are very popular among the guests. We offer not only sweet pieces, cakes and small snacks, but also cold and hot drinks, Additionally, they provide you typical Australian dishes with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
