I love the atmosphere here! Dress up in your finery, go out have a cocktail in a joint that's swinging! 1920's styling, beautiful decore, great drinks and delicious food. It's not a cheap place, prices do reflect that but if you are wanting a great night and are happy to pay a little more then I do recommend stopping in here. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What Gia Romano doesn't like about Ivory:

They used to be great, but lately you cannot book in a week in advance or even walk in to the bar called ahead just to sit at the bar "sorry no"! Give it a pass, it's not worth the bother. The new staff are not friendly don't offer available times other days, it's like pulling teeth getting any information. Honestly the food isn't any better than NomNom and they are so much more accommodating and friendly!! read more. The Ivory from Rangiora has menus on offer that are typical for Europe, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
