First visit, based on a friend's recommendation, but certainly won't be the last. Traditional dishes, old school cooking, so a quite a rarity in itself. Take note that many of the signature dishes will need to be pre ordered, so we didn't sample them; also, seating might be a challenge during peak. But what we did get a couple of dishes and a plate of noodles was delectable. Worth the drive if you're feeling adventurous... read more. What Andy L

doesn't like about Bun Heng:

Seriously appreciate the effort and workmanship for all the dishes made here. Truly most of the dishes here are long lost traditional Cantonese cuisine dishes. However, in my opinion the dishes are lacking of flavors that able to fit into modern tastebuds. But again, really admire the amount of effort to prep the food read more. Get excited in Bun Heng from Rawang for versatile, tasty Chinese cuisine that's traditionally cooked in a wok.
