We experienced the Omakase at the Chef's Table. It was 18 courses excluding supplement dishes. The food was beautiful and made right in front of us, the chef explained all the dishes to us and we enjoyed the night. The omakase was about $265 per person. read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious menus from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good selection of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, The guests of the restaurant are also thrilled with the large variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, among the delicacies of this restaurant are especially the Maki and Inside-Out.
