We made a quick stop at the Makarora country cafe. Sadly 3 tour buses arrives just before us (2 unannounced, we were scheduled) and this made service problematic. We were able to grab snacks from their well stocked store and tried things called chicken salt chips (not a North American thing) so that was interesting. It would have been nice to have been able to do a sit down but 200 tourists all at the same time made... read more.
