Greeted by a friendly lady upon arrival who offered water, to which we happily accepted. I had a chicken parmigiana (it does NOT come with chips like in the photo) and my mother had a burger which came with chips and sauce. Was really hoping to see some chips or salad/veggies with the parmigiana, but it didn't matter too much because it was very filling. Wait was a little bit long but it was certainly worth it in the...
