A hidden gem you would otherwise not discover if not for the ferry to cross the river. Other than the long wait times for the food to be ready due to the small kitchen, the quality of the food was surprisingly high. The portions were a little small to share between a table of five but the flavours were dripping with essence. The oysters were goooood but it's on the pricey end. read more. At A Chef Secrets from Feock United Kingdom you have the opportunity to taste delicious vegetarian dishes, in which no trace of animal meat or fish was processed, and you will find classic Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. There are also exquisite dishes typical for Europe, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast.
