Ma's Kitchen in Chinatown's Sussex Centre Food Court is the joint we hit when we get the itch for some really good and shiny Chinese stir fry. We reckon it's the Malaysian/Indo influence in the cooking that gives it the extra oomph. These guys are old pros quick and businesslike the guy at the counter even smiles sometimes. The servings are generous and value plus. We intended to eat our way through every dish on the... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is free WLAN. What Justice Tillman doesn't like about Ma's Kitchen:

the man refused to serve me for no reason. I had my card in my hand, as I had just ordered, and before I even spoke to the man who served bluntly, said: "card? no" and immediately turned around and went away. I got money from my wallet and waited for him to return. I started to order a black bunny and he said, "only one? No." how he rolled his eyes and left again (before I could even order the rest of our food.) we w... read more. The Ma's Kitchen from Haymarket provides various fine seafood menus, The dishes are usually prepared fast and fresh for you. Many visitors also especially enjoy the versatile, scrumptious Chinese cuisine, Besides, the creative blend of different menus with new and partially adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the guests - a good case of Asian Fusion.
