Awesome vibe with live music. Lovely service, though it was a tad slow due to it being peak time Saturday brunch. Loved the bacon egg baguette and French toast with caramelized apples. The smell of the wood smoker was amazing. Followed by laying in the sun at Clarke's point. Best no-kids date in a while. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What Alfreda Bailey doesn't like about Le Village:

The place wasn't very busy when we walked in. A waiter told us to be seated and he would be with us in a minute. About 10 minutes later and after catching his eye a few times we decided to order at the counter. The food was delicious however I found the coffee a bit too bitter. I noticed there were more staff from 10am and service picked up. I do agree that table numbers are needed as it would make matching food to t... read more.
