Pellegrini's in Melbourne is a landmark culinary cafe that has been serving up simple Italian food for generations. While some may argue that the food quality has declined over the years, others still find it to be a quirky and authentic dining experience. The pasta dishes are plentiful and satisfying, with the lasagna and tiramisu being standout choices. The atmosphere is bustling and busy, reminiscent of a true Italian eatery. While the service is friendly and prompt, some diners have experienced issues with the food quality and incorrect orders.
