Whilst this restaurant is rather 'tired ' these days, it has maintained the quality, variety and presentation of their menu. The fact that they will be relocating to Macrossan street shortly probably explains the general ambience. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What Lilian Casanova doesn't like about On the Inlet:

Overrated and overpriced. I wouldn't go to this place ever again. Food with no flavour. The crab linguini was close to inedible! The tiger prawns was as good as eating it raw! read more. At On the Inlet from Port Douglas it's possible to enjoy delicious vegetarian menus, that were made without any animal meat or fish, Particularly, the visitors love the tasty juices. Also worth mentioning at this restaurant are the courses from the Australian continent, Also, the guests of the establishment love the comprehensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer.
