What User doesn't like about Lake Street Cafe:

Along Lake Street, old prices and information about a department store have been carved into the pavement; there's even related information on the side of a litter bin. So a great idea to look for signs such as "school hats 2/11"-old British currency that's two shillings and eleven pence or about 14p. It's quite an entertaining ways of spending 15-20 minutes after which you can visit this nearby café for some refresh... read more.
