First the good pieces An excellent freshly squeezed orange juice and duk. Well cooked rice and mixed kebabs. We had to ask Piaz(onion) with the Kebabs, although it is very traditional that this comes out with every Kebab menu in Iran. The ambience lacked the true Persian experience with a Doof Western music videos instead of traditional Persian music. We paid here a premium in Lygon st, $32 for a mixed kebab of 3 spi... What Aubrey Mchunu doesn't like about Mixity

Restaurant & Cafe:

We went to Mixity with the hope of having Persian kababs and what we had only looked like a kabab. Very disappointing almost weird taste, nothing authentic. Poor quality. There was a big group in the tiny lounge who were celebrating a birthday and they...were so noisy we couldn't hear each other and were left with no other options since they are not serving food outside, only shisha. That particular night was a bit c... read more. It's certainly always an experience to be in a typical saloon and to consume; to feel like a cowboy for once with a chilled drink and also the finger food like crispy fries, onion rings or a delicious burger, Here you'll find sweet pastries and cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot drinks. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, guests often choose the scrumptious, fluffy flatbread, which is perfect for dunking into the own hummus or a creamy yogurt dip; the unusual connection of figs and goat cheese undeniably also belongs to the best dishes of the multifaceted Middle Eastern cuisine.
