The holy grail in suburban Sydney is to find quality scrambled eggs. Not the crumbly dry pap that predominates, or the slightly soggy milky mess that is the substitute. Bakerie kills with proper, creamy, consistent and tasty scramble. Excellent. Coffee, Campos, is strong and perfect temperature, just how I like it with no bitterness. The in house sourdough is very good. The smashed avo delicious. The pastries are act... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities,

Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Bakerie:

The coffee was weak & cold. The apple patisserie had soggy flaky pastry which was also doughy on the bottom - very disappointing. It was quite pricey for what I purchased compared to cafes closer to the city. It was busy as it seemed to be a favourite with the locals. I did not try the bread so perhaps it is good. The service was very good. read more.
