I always love here. Great taste and oh so fresh. The sushi chefs create their dishes in front of your eyes and the sushi melts in your mouth. Get there before the line gets too long read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Hero Sushi Train:

Went here for lunch today at 1.30. We were pointed to go grab a seat. Once we sat down noticed the train conveyor was almost empty despite there being quite a few customers. Thought would order instead, but all the wait staff disappeared. Gave...up after 10 minutes and walked out. Shame as have eaten here a few times in the past. read more. In the Hero Sushi Train from Sydney, using a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, easy-to-digest, fine Japanese meals are prepared, Delicious particularly are the Sushi and delicacies like Te-Maki that this place is known for. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Hero Sushi Train. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known menus too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients taste, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian menus.
