Saturday Night Date Night found us seeking a change from Chinese fare so we tried Nimto The Invitation. Never having tried Nepalese food we were excited to see what was on offer. A very charming and friendly host (we presume was the owner) made every effort to make us feel welcome and comfortable as he explained the menu to us. For entree we had the Vegetable Mama - delicious little dumplings with two great dipping sau... read more.

In pleasant weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Nimto The Invitation: ordered takeaway biryani and momo. was the worst eating when it tasted. the biryani tasted simple and no salt. the fried momo was wet and dry. I understand it was a last minute order, but if they couldn't do it, it would have rejected it, but. it felt as if it were all stale and went in the kitchen mixed and sent. could not have thrown away and starving sleep! very disappointed! For breakfast, a opulent brunch is offered at Nimto The Invitation in Hurstville that you can enjoy as much as you like, and you can try fine American menus like Burger or Barbecue. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Nimto The Invitation. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known dishes too boring can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients consume, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
