I eat here about once a month and it has good pub grub. I come for lunch and have never been disappointed with the food. The staff is friendly and nothing is too much trouble. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about The City Labor Club:

We ate dinner and found it to be quite ordinary. They weren't overly welcoming once they found out you weren't going to put money through the poker machines. Steak was small and tough. Salad was old and tired. Post-mix soft drinks were barely flavoured. Very noisy and not really a nice atmosphere. read more. For breakfast, you can enjoy a rich brunch at The City Labor Club, freely at your own will, there are also delicious vegetarian dishes on the menu. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Additionally, they provide you authentic Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
