We've eaten at Queen's Park Pizza many times. The staff are very friendly and after a few visits learned our names. The food is consistently good and is ready very quickly. The pizza does have generous toppings and the pasta is quite tasty too. The food is definitely worth getting and they are a local business well worth supporting. read more. What User doesn't like about Queens Park Pizza Maroubra:

The food here is generally good, but the owner, manager and staff are very rude. Take away is not a good option as it is often way over the specified time limit and almost always cold. read more. At Queens Park Pizza Maroubra from Maroubra it's possible to taste delicious vegetarian menus, that were made without any animal meat or fish. Generally, the dishes are prepared in the shortest time and fresh for you. Naturally, they also serve you with crisply crunchy pizza, baked straight from the oven in original style, and you will find classic Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
