A nice and small restaurant with friendly staff. For people who know Indonesian cuisine, this is an authentic place to eat. You can have a variety of Indonesian dishes, from mild to spicy ones. Love the food here! Highly recommend! read more. What User doesn't like about Garamerica:

Visited with work colleagues, and we all tried different dishes based on the lunch special, which is a meal, rice and drink for $11 or $12 - reasonable value for a decent feed I thought. The choices are a little sparse if your looking for vegetarian, gluten free, etc, etc, and when the dish says hot chilli, believe it. I had the beef rendang which was very tasty. I'd say the pick of our table was the Gado Gado, albeit... read more. At Garamerica from South Melbourne it's possible to taste delicious vegetarian dishes, that were made without any animal meat or fish, The visitors of the establishment also consider the comprehensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers.
