The Grapevine has a downstairs bar, restaurant and lounge, each section appealing to a different kind of customer. My favourite place to hang out is the lounge (though all are amazing), you can be guaranteed great customer service, a menu worth getting fat for, and cocktails made with a bit of flare. Often there is live music with management being one of the biggest supporters of the arts in town. Highly recommend thi... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Red Grapevine Restaurant & Bar:

After booking in February for a booking of 20 (family & friends group of people travelling from 200-250km) to celebrate a graduation we were told today...3 days before the booking that the kitchen was closed and our booking was cancelled. Such a let down and not at all what you'd expect from a restaurant that has a good reputation. My advice, be wary, if they can let us down, they could do the same to you. What did I...
