Another visit to Aharn and no disappointment, the service was great and the food excelled. We had a variety of starters, including thai fishcakes, for mains we had soft shell crab, chicken thai salad, lamb shanks, and duck, and for dessert banana fritters with sticky rice. Washed down with a Tyrrell's Lost Block semillon and a Tyrrell's Brokenback shiraz. Delicious food and great company! read more. When the weather is nice you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Aharn Thai Restaurant:

The food wasn't that great and the staff were more interested in talking to regulars (or relatives?) rather than serve our table. We had previously tried to visit this restaurant and luckily I ran ahead because several times they were closed for no reason (it was not school or public holidays). A sign has recently gone up to lease the place so I'm unsure as to how long they'll be there for read more. Aharn Thai Restaurant from COOKS HILL cooks delicious dishes with the Thai culinary known spices and (fish-)sauces, along with loads of freshly harvested vegetables, seafood and meat, Moreover, the delicious desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes. In addition, they offer you flavorful seafood meals, Incidentally, there is the typical atmosphere and obviously also the typical ambiance of a Brasserie.
