What User likes about Le-Petit Patissier: Alain rocks!!!! My daughter moved to Ballarat in January to live and work - we visited her at Easter, and discovered the delights of Le Petit Patissier on Sturt Street. Yesterday, was her first birthday in Australia, and a long way from home in the U.K. I Skype-called Alain last week and asked him if he would make a birthday cake for our daughter and whether he would mind delivering it to the school where she teaches... What User doesn't like about Le-Petit Patissier: Greeted by bonjour as we entered I thought we were in safe hands . Then I realised that 'bonjour' was about the only French spoken by the waiter staff. The menu included some great French lunch snack names. Alas that's as French as it got with cheddar and Hungarian salami filling the baguettes and croques . The bread however was beautiful and the cakes/pastries looked delicious. The front staff lacked finesse or unde... read more.
