I get the fresh (salad) roll with tofu instead of garning. the meatless, tofu or herbal pho comes in a vegetable broth and it is quite delicious. the Pho-shots are huge, in front of the order of the great. it is enough for a small family. I love pho is rarely overcrowded. I think that must do with the fact that there is not really in a contrary place where there are many other restaurants around it immediately. read more. Came in the other day. My buddy and I ordered two large phos. Only came out one and mine never came out. I waited an hour including the time my buddy was eating his portion. They were slightly busy. In all, I been here twice, first time they had 0 customers except us, and the food was good and delivered quite promptly. This time, since there was a couple tables being served, the service went down to non existent. Ove... read more.
