What User likes about Sarbez: To be honest, I would eat here several times in the week when I lived in st aug. it's good. it is easy to adapt to quirky. my Omni partner liked it and they are extra picky. about all the great experiences. read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WiFi for its guests. What User doesn't like about Sarbez: the venue is very diveable with nostalgic decoration. building your own option is great for experimenting with aromen, or they have a long list of proven and real combos. all creamy can be veganized with tempo and vegan cheese. I was inadvertently served the gluten-free brot and it was surprisingly good! not like the poplar cracker type break in the rule associated with the gluten-free option. read more. You can at Sarbez from St. Augustine taste delicious vegetarian dishes, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, For a snack, the delicious sandwiches, small salads and other snacks are suitable.
