Overall, food was very satisfactory. The portions sizes were good. There is a tablet at each table which makes it a lot easier for customers to order food. The food is on the expensive side but worth it! read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. In Auckland, traditional dishes are prepared in the kitchen of Nishiki with original Asian spices delicious, fine vegetarian meals are also in the menu available. Undoubtedly, the highlight of this place is the delightful Sushi such as Nigiri and Inside-Out, and you can look forward to the scrumptious typical seafood cuisine.
