Kebab Ka Baap !! They have justified the title. All the starters were lip smacking. Presentation of the dishes were good. Went here to have Mandi biryani and it was just average. But the kebabs are just simply awesome. The shop is very small , so please do make a reservation before dining-in. For budgetary people : We went there as a people of 5 and it was 600 per person read more. At Kebapci, you'll find not only the traditional Kebabs done in various, distinct styles, but also the spices well-known for Turkish cuisine - whether on a fine Lahmacun, or in Sucuk or even in one of the various lentil or bulgur salads, Meals are also prepared here, deliciously and freshly with typical Indian spices. For those still considering, the inviting smell of fresh flatbread combined with the delicious, syrupy promise of fresh baklava might be the necessary push - the Middle East is undeniably closer than you would assume.
