Bought the Capriossca pizza and Proscuitto Panini for dinner. The panini was delicious, the saltiness between the proscuitto and the cheese wasn't too overpowering and were well balanced. The pizza was tasty, the only problem was that the base was very thick so it did eventually get quite soggy and although the pieces were pre cut, it was hard to tear apart each piece. The staff were nice though, the place was very b... read more. At Roma
