Cute little shop out the back of fresh provisions with stylish black La Marzocco machine. Service was fun and friendly. Flat white was well done chocolate and velvety style that worked well with milk. Cold brew was balanced and full flavoured. Everything bagel with chive cream cheese was toasted crispy and not too dense. One of the nicer bagels I've had in Perth. A great addition to the area and will compete with Chu... read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What Larisa Muižnieks doesn't like about Standby Espresso:

Been driving past this little spot for a while now and finally got to try it. It's a little hole in the wall place that does small coffees for $3.50 and large for $4.50, some small food items like toasties, banana bread and bagels. The flat white was smooth but lacked any great flavor, maybe too milky for my liking. It was OK and would probably suit that who like a milkier/weak coffee, but Bossman coffee nearby is pr...
