The Bay Road Pantry, located in leafy Claremont, was once a favorite among locals, known for its friendly service and great coffee. However, under new management, the cafe has taken a steep decline.

Customers have reported rude staff, bitter coffee, and average food. Some have even found that takeaway snacks were already partially eaten when they got home. On the other hand, some reviews from the previous management praised the cafe as a hidden gem with welcoming owners, delicious food, and consistent coffee. Despite the mixed reviews, the cafe's sunny location and reasonably priced menu continue to attract customers looking for a neighborhood cafe experience.
