Excellent food and the servings were large. The very friendly service is impeccable. Our only complaints were the rock hard seats (cushions are a must) and the air conditioning that was useless in such a large space. Hopefully the new management will solve these problems in due course. read more. Dreadful. Went here to see a Wallabies game as she would advertise it. There was a pile of about 10 drunk boys in the pub that scream together, and fell throughout the place in the whole place to fell the food and stood directly in front of the big screen, which blocked the view while all the view Game watched. She kept so far over an hour.

The management serves to give them alcohol again and again and never asked th... read more.
