We ordered the "bleeding heart" & "duo au chocolat". The former was a delicate framboise on a macaron base, filled with berry coulis & covered in strawberry jelly. The flavours are sublime & the soft velvety centre paired with the gentle crunch & chewiness of the macaron was delightful. The latter is a light mousse cake with pleasing flavours of white & milk chocolate. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather. What Σολομών Θεοδώρου doesn't like about Aux fines Bouches:

I've driven past this Parisian inspired place countless times and yet, it was never convenient for me to stop and take some time. That changed when the opportunity for a quick lunch date presented itself. The hidden gem known as Aux Fines Bouches is in plain sight along Brighton Road in Brighton so next time you drive past look out for that Eiffel Tower in the window. read more.
