This is my favourite coffee place in Adelaide. I was initially drawn to it because of the fascinating history of the building but stayed because of the homely atmosphere, the kind staff and, well, the best chai lattes I've ever had! Nothing feels skimmed here and I will be continuing to come regularly. Can't recommend it enough. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What Σολομών Θεοδώρου doesn't like about Adelaide Coffee Bar:

we stopped during a day of seeing. there was a display case of pre-assembled sandwiches to choose and we were a group of 5 hungry tourists. most sandwiches seemed to have only 1 of each, so when someone had chosen the sandwich I wanted, I had to look for something else. there was a lot of options. I ordered a ficelle sandwich that was long and narrow, but not heated. my partner ordered a foccacia sandwich that was pr... read more.
