Booked the private upstairs room for my mother's 80th birthday. Selected the 3 course menu with a choice of 3 dishes for entree, mains and dessert. At $65.00 per head it was excellent value and all present commented on the quality of the food and service. Our main waitress was Alice, who was brilliant all evening. Nothing was a problem and the atmosphere in the room was great. There is a large TV screen for presentat... read more. What George E doesn't like about Charing Cross Hotel:

What has happened to this once very good dinner place? We ate there last night, while the staff were friendly. The service was non existant and the food was way below par. My lamb shank and baked veggies seemed like they had been warmed up in the microwave, but was all still pretty cold. My wife's medium rare steak was overcooked, and her chips were luke warm. Our kids had small coldish pizzas that were again below st... read more.
