My husband found this little gem. It was great for his parents to get the train to Sydney and they only had a small walk to get to the restaurant. Wonderful surrounds and people watching on Macquarie Street. Food was delicious and sensible portions. The salmon salad was a standout as well as the brisket. Highly recommended. read more.

When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside. What Lourdes Ebert doesn't like about No. 10 BISTRO:

This restaurant was recommended to us. I ordered the chicken and when I cut into it, it was pink. I spoke to the waitress, who offered me another chicken or something else from the menu. As I had been put off by the pink chicken, I declined. She told me I would not be charged. When we went up to pay our bill, the chicken was on the bill. ExplAined what had happened to Cashier, who grudgingly took it off the bill. She... read more. This Bistro is small yet refined and captures attention not just with its ambiance, but also with its offer of typical, delectable menus at typically small prices, Likewise, the guests of the restaurant prefer the comprehensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides. Important are also the courses from Australia of this establishment, This sports bar is a popular hangout for guests who enjoy watching the latest games or races on the big screen while enjoying food and drinks.
