We had Japanese exchange students staying with us, so decided to take them for dinner. Was an absolutely fantastic night. Staff were warm and friendly. Food was great. Would definitely go again and would recommend to others. The owner (I think he is the owner) had us laughing all night. Kids had a ball. read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Hayashi Teppanyaki Restaurant: It's a shame to call this a teppanyaki restaurant. They had 2 "show" grills and most "theatrical" stunt they could do was to throw an egg that would break into the bowl we had. Food portions were quite limited that we had to order outside the banquet menu. Highly over priced for the quality of food and service. My 10 year old daughter begged me not to come here ever again. I guess those who have given a good rating h... read more.
