I've always enjoyed Nando's menu and have never been left without something to eat. Everything i've tried has tasted fine, and the food is always consistent. I eat here every few months, usually ordering the chicken paella. A little while ago i went with a friend and our order was forgotten, we were in no rush and after inquiring about our order the staff were sincerely apologetic, cooked our meals quickly afterwards... I love nandos but I was there last Friday and two big hairs were inside my wrap. I told the guy in charge and he replaced it with a grilled chicken breast. He sort of apologised for it and that was that. As if it didn't happen. I didn't even get a small custard pie as reward! read more.
