What User likes about Carv'n It Up: Visited this awesome place twice with my husband and we both agree it's a great feed for a good price and the quality is great. It's quick and easy! I had the small lamb with all vegetables, baked potatoes and gravy. Lamb was succulent, not dry. Peas and carrots tender, only thing I wasn't fussed on was the baked potatoes, they were a little dry. Gravy was so nice, thick and tasty. My husband loved the pork roast and the... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Carv'n It Up: The last time I was there they ran out of pork at six pm which is far too early to not have one of the three meat options. I went again last night at roughly 7:45 and they had already closed up the shop and I looked it up and it says they're meant to close at eight pm. The service is always very blunt and sometimes rude. I don't feel welcome or wanted entering that tiny store with awful customer service and average f... read more.
