Located in a shipping container with lots of atmosphere and a quirky vibe, Sifters is certainly a go to for coffee. With seating both out in the sun and under cover and an every changing menu, this place certainly delivers the good. Definitely going back again! Great for a casual coffee with friends or even a quick bite to eat. read more.

The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Sifters:

After not visiting for a couple of months my partner and I decided to return. Regretfully so. Ordered our food and drink. Mango drink arrived - on the menu honey was not listed as an ingredient - my partner who is allergic drank it and had an allergic reaction. My meal came out. $18 for some avocado, tomato, a measly 3 tiny pieces of feta and a raw poached egg. Not good enough. A new egg was sent out, meal was still... read more. At Sifters in
