Went in by myself, merely to buy a pie but ended up purchasing some other unusual deli. provisions. This store is very handy to my home and I regularly frequent it as I prefer it to 7/11, although the latter is closer. Prices are very competitive for a small store. They are obviously appealing to a need in the community for different fare.

The counter staff member was exceedingly polite and helpful. WOULD STRONGLY RE... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What TheyCallMeMrT doesn't like about Stephen Street Store:

Got burgers from here Friday night. Got a schnitzel burger a cheese burger and 2 hamburgers. It was very off putting seeing the lettuce. Once u know something is rotten and it's been in ur food it's hard to eat it let alone enjoy it. If the lettuce is slimy what is their food handling like or their food storage. No one got sick thankfully. The chips were over cooked and dry and the potato scallop was not fresh made.... read more. At Stephen Street Store in Darling Heights, a hearty brunch is served in the morning, where you can eat as much as you want enjoy thoroughly, Moreover, the drinks menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially large diversity of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try. Also worth mentioning at this restaurant are the meals from the Australian continent, Furthermore, you can get sweet treats, cake, simple snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages here.
