We were wet from working out in some rain and needed a nice hot drink. Arrived here to a friendly face, got to know about the common interests shared by my friend and the owner. Great coffee and hot chocolate and my friends gluten free cake was yummy. I loved my banana toast and we left with smiles on our dials. What more could you ask for. read more. Husband asked for strong latte & got a mug of warm milk. My chai was OK but nothing to get excited about. We both asked for a ham, cheese & pineapple doorstop and we got half a hotdog roll with supermarket shredded ham, tinned pineapple with a bit of melted cheese. More like a pizza sub (and not a good one). Cost us $28. Keep driving, don't waste your money. read more.
