If you're looking for a good coffee this is the place to stop. Mandy is also a great cook and the lemon meringue is legendary. There's also lots of savoury stuff to eat in or take away. As a bonus the back of the shop is a craft-lovers delight with amazing crochet and hand-made items for sale. read more. When the weather is good you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Cafe Crema on Oak:

I had read positive reviews about Cafe Crema and added it to our list of places for coffee. Coffee was not to our liking so I wouldn't go back. Having said that it was a busy cafe so lots of other people don't think the way I do.

It's an interesting little place to visit though. You won't miss it with the hand crocheted covered seats outside. Enjoy read more.
