I ate here three times in two days and was always happy. The local special banana blossoms Curry was deliciously an almost silky texture like Aubergine. The Veg Curry (with or without coconut) was loaded with vegetables that were tender but still recognizable. It remains the best I've ever had in months. I dream about it! The owner/family was also so friendly and helpful. The dining room has a mixture of tables/seals... read more.

What User doesn't like about Tree Line:

Good place for lunch. Average ambience and service. While there are many ways to visit, it is not in a crowded area. Street parking available. There are seating on the ground floor and table. Not prominently visible from outside, you need to climb narrow stairs to the first floor restaurant. Although it is not expensive, it is also not cheap. You can have better ambience and food in other places. If you have meals in... read more. At Tree Line in
