We travel about half an hour to Franklins when in need of a good old pub feed. There is no pretense here that it is something that it is not, just great pub meals very well priced. For the two of us we usually get out spending around $50 including a bottle of house wine. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather. What Cristopher Howe doesn't like about Franklins Tavern:

We went to Franklins Tavern for dinner on a Friday evening. We ordered steak, chips and salad. It was nicely cooked and delicious. The beer prices were reasonable and the service was good but then again, the restaurant wasn't too full. I would go back...again to try one of their dinner specials. read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only exquisite dishes, but also a large and comprehensive diversity of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, this sports bar is a favourite among the visitors, who enjoy not only the fantastic food and drinks, but also the opportunity to watch the latest games or races on the big TV. You can also relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Additionally, they offer you authentic Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
