User likes about Jneely's Burrito:

update: I absolutely loved this place, but this last visit was terrible. of my man was very badly hurt for the rest of the day after he had eaten the shrimp tacos. the chips were punctual and the chips did not lubricate as they were earlier. we spent about $50 just for the 2 of us. for only chips a small container of queso, it was $8 and some change. I loved this place before our last visit absolutely, but my man say... read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Jneely's Burrito:

we were super excited to eat here, but when ordering our food and paying, we noticed that the cook is eating in the kitchen where the food is prepared. he did not wear gloves and coughed in his hands and prepared for the food. my mother-in-law has spoken about it and he has asked if I wash my hands? So if they're looking for a place where the cooks eat in the kitchen during the preparation of food, they wear 't glov... read more. If you want to a beer after work and sit with friends or alone, Jneely's Burrito from Belton is a good bar, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied variety of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try. Even the versatile, scrumptious Mexican cuisine, traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chili, is very popular with the guests, The meals are usually prepared for you in a short time and fresh.
