I went to Afuri with my omnivorous mum. She was able to get something she was satisfied with, and I was happy with my hot and tasty udon. You order and pay at the machine by the entry, then get seated once something is available. There's only one vegan option (udon in broth with veggies) but it's tasty, and still reasonably rare to come by vegan broth even in Tokyo! read more. What User doesn't like about Afuri Ebisi:

at 22:00 a.m. on a Friday night I had to wait a bit behind a few parties outside. I was a drunk guy who had his head on the table and took up a valuable escapade. (I ended up sitting right next to him, so I still had to do my eyes on him during my meal). when I made my selection on the touchscreen machine, I found the rainbow Vegan wheel in the special section. for what they get, this is a really expensive dish. the...
