a lot of positive about the teriyaki sunk and reis. pretty desappointed with the taste, was very dry, more sauce would have improved it. there was a lot of rice and a fair amount of sinking chicken, so this was more a quantity over quality meal. not terrible, could have tasted better. read more. At St Pierre's Sushi from Auckland, fine sushi (e.g., Maki and Sashimi) is prepared for you, along with many additional variations, always fresh with ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, and a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat are used to prepare easily digestible Japanese meals. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of St Pierre's Sushi. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known meals too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients eat, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes.
