Good food. Uni-student hotspot. Amazing little touches on each dish (coffee with caramel popcorn, chips with many spices, etc) from such an inexpensive secret find. Service is fast even though it's seemingly always busy/crowded. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Otago Museum Café: lentil spinach pie was pretty bland and tasteless, what was disappointing because it looked like it was good. the chocolate chip cookie was very sugary, hard and certainly too dense in a big hockey puck. read more. With the large range of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Otago Museum Café becomes even more attractive, For breakfast a versatile brunch is offered here. If you have not much hunger, you can treat yourself to one of the delicious sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack.
