What User doesn't like about The Red Mill Bakehouse: I have been going to this coffee shop for years and they have been great. Lately the staff are really slow, chat with each making coffees and don't seem to be aware that people are waiting longer. Customer service is not high on their agenda. Highly suggest further training or employ staff who actually want to provide good customer service. The cafe is no where as busy as it used to be in the day and you always got c... read more.
