Stopped in at Coal River Farm for lunch, and the food was amazing!! Views are great too! Lots to see and do on the farm (they make their own chocolate here, seasonal fruit picking, etc.), but given it was a bit wet, we just chose to feed the gorgeous, friendly goats. If you are coming for lunch, I would recommend booking a table, as there isn't a huge amount of seating in wet weather. And make sure you buy some of the... read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Matthew Gray doesn't like about Coal River Farm:

We were looking forward to our visit to Coal River Farm for lunch. However, after placing our orders we were subsequently advised that the two pork dishes that we had ordered were unavailable. Our second choice - the pan seared gnocchi with blue cheese and beetroot - was disappointing especially for the price. read more. If you feel like a dessert, you should visit Coal River Farm because they have enchanting desserts that will definitely satisfy the sweet-tooth in you, Additionally, they offer you typical Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, The visitors of the restaurant are also thrilled with the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers.
